Irish Frieze Woollen Factory,
CARRICK-ON-SUIR.

NICHOLAS KENNY, Proprietor, pledges himself that no material is used in making his FRIEZE, TWEED, DOUBLE DYE FLANNEL, SERGE BLANKETS, &c., &c., Except THE PURE WOOL.

Some doubts being expressed in certain quarters as to the GENUINESS of these articles, from the low prices at which they are offered, and also as to whether they could be brought to the FINISH they claimed, insinuating that they may be English-made Goods sold as Irish, I feel called upon to state, that I SELL NO GOODS BUT MY OWN MAKE, all being finished in my FACTORY, at MILLVALE

The Work in the DYE-HOUSE is carefully attended to and all colours done in Flannel, as well as LADIES' DRESSES, in SCARLET, MAGENTA, RUBY, BLUE, GREEN, BLACK, YELLOW, &c., &c.
