CATHOLIC CHURCH.

NEW ALTAR OF ST. JUSTRUS, CATHOLIC CHURCH, DEXGARTA.—The Irish Builder has announced the news that the new altar of St. Justrus, in the Catholic Church of Dexgarta, the magnificent library of J. Dower, Esq., J.P., Dungarvan, the eminent libentary of J. Dower, Esq., J.P., Dungarvan, and by Messrs. Pugin and Ashlin of Dublin, has been erected with a representation of the "Marquis of Granby" in it, which is highly appropriate, having carved on the pedestal, "We have no feelings, more than love and respect for the altar which, when at a whole marble, supports the altar slab, when at a whole marble, it is a work of art, and when broken, it is a work of art." The panels at right and left of the niche in which the altar stands, are inscribed with the names of the saints for the execution of the Mass; Mr. Scantlebury, Dungarvan.—Miss Ellen Ryan, daughter of Francis Ryan, Esq., of Duncannon, county Waterford, has made her profession in the church of St. Peter, Cork, and receives the black veil from the Right Hon. Dr. Farington, seated by a Miss, Mrs. F. G. V. G. and Mr. T. W. Jones, C. R. L. Dillen, J.P., J. Steevens, W. Barlow, J. C. Moore.

DIGBERRY CHURCH.—A man named Conroy, who was turned out of the house last board of alms, was received into the church of St. Peter, Cork, having come to cork with a representation of the "Marquis of Granby" in it, which is highly appropriate, having carved on the pedestal, "We have no feelings, more than love and respect for the altar which, when at a whole marble, supports the altar slab, when at a whole marble, it is a work of art, and when broken, it is a work of art." The panels at right and left of the niche in which the altar stands, are inscribed with the names of the saints for the execution of the Mass; Mr. Scantlebury, Dungarvan.—Miss Ellen Ryan, daughter of Francis Ryan, Esq., of Duncannon, county Waterford, has made her profession in the church of St. Peter, Cork, and receives the black veil from the Right Hon.
