

MULLINGHORE, COUNTY OF SLIGO.

TO MEET, Licensed, for the Season, TWO RIGHT-ROPPED BATHING LODGES, on the Sea Shore, opposite the Hotel and Baths, lately built by Thomas Palmerston.

NOTICE.

County of Sligo) TENDERS for the following Public Works will be received at my office, on Saturday, the 23rd, and Sunday, the 24th days of June instant:

1. Railway of Lerry, Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5. 2. Railway of Carrick, Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11. 3. Railway of Carrick, Nos. 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22. 4. Railway of Carrick, Nos. 23, 24, 25.

MIDLAND GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY. EXCURSION TRAIN FROM CAVAN, LONGFORD, MULLINGAR, & TO DUBLIN.

ON SATURDAY, 25th JUNE, AN EXCURSION TRAIN will be despatched from CAVAN at 10 o'clock, and will arrive at DUBLIN at 3 o'clock.

Table with 3 columns: Station, 1st Class, 2nd Class, 3rd Class. Includes stations like Longford, Mullingar, Carrick, Cavan, Drogheda, and Dublin.

The Excursionists will be enabled to return by the Ordinary Passenger Trains (according to class) on any day up to and including MONDAY, 27th July 1861.

THE SHORTEST AND MOST DIRECT ROUTE TO AMERICA.

THE Atlantic Royal Mail Steam Ships are appointed to sail between GALWAY, NEW YORK, and BOSTON.

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND. To land Passengers and her Majesty's Mail.

FROM GALWAY. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for New York. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM NEW YORK. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND. To land Passengers and her Majesty's Mail.

FROM GALWAY. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for New York. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM NEW YORK. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM ST. JOHN'S. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

FROM BOSTON. JULY 2. ANGLIA, for Galway. JULY 16. PARKER ALBERT, for Boston.

The Sligo Champion.

"Truth Toppers."

SLIGO: SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1861.

SUMMARY OF LATEST NEWS.

We have advices from Australia to the 25th of April, from which we learn that the Parliament of Victoria has voted £75,000 to assist emigration to that country during the present year.

The British fleet on the West Coast of Africa has bombarded Porto Novo, killing 700 of the Natives. The cause of this slaughter was the refusal of the King to allow the English to trade there.

The following extracts of a Letter, received this morning, from our London Correspondent, refer to matters of some interest.

HOME AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

From all I have been able to learn on the subject of the Galway Sobriety, I incline to the opinion that the resolution is not to be carried.

AMERICA—ENGLAND!

But the other day, Italy expressed public antipathy to the exclusion of every other consideration; at the present moment, the Italian question sinks into insignificance in view of the disruption of the States.

CATHOLIC CHAPLAINS OF WORKHOUSES.

We have regarded the consigning of the Catholic poor of Ireland to the Workhouses, as at present constituted, one of the greatest calamities that could befall our people.

THE DERRYVEAGH EVICTIONS.

The Appeal of the Committee on behalf of Mr. Daniel Keogh's victims will be found in our first page—has already met a response which augurs well for its ultimate success.

GRAND JURY CESS.

HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

sett, in whom he places the greatest reliance. If an English nobleman, or a nobleman of a foreign country, should take place on a small scale, it can possibly be avoided.

Our latest files of American papers, which are to the 31st of May, are filled with warlike intelligence, but nothing at all in variance with the opinions expressed by our well-informed correspondents.

The following extracts of a Letter, received this morning, from our London Correspondent, refer to matters of some interest.

From all I have been able to learn on the subject of the Galway Sobriety, I incline to the opinion that the resolution is not to be carried.

But the other day, Italy expressed public antipathy to the exclusion of every other consideration; at the present moment, the Italian question sinks into insignificance in view of the disruption of the States.

We have regarded the consigning of the Catholic poor of Ireland to the Workhouses, as at present constituted, one of the greatest calamities that could befall our people.

The Appeal of the Committee on behalf of Mr. Daniel Keogh's victims will be found in our first page—has already met a response which augurs well for its ultimate success.

GRAND JURY CESS. HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

HOUSE LEVELLING—NEW ROADS. In our publication of the 25th instants, we referred to the mode in which the election of associated cesses took place at the presentment sessions held in the Grand Jury Room.

marking their disapproval of the revival of the barbarous principle of English law which has been brought to bear against the offending Tenant of Derryveagh.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS.

Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

What is to be the next move of the Proselytisers? We know it, and have a vigilant watch over their proceedings. The Protestant Orphan Society may refuse to take the children, fearing the consequences; but the Shewans are the friends of the children, and expect that the grandfather will give them up to be reared respectfully.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

marking their disapproval of the revival of the barbarous principle of English law which has been brought to bear against the offending Tenant of Derryveagh.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS.

Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

What is to be the next move of the Proselytisers? We know it, and have a vigilant watch over their proceedings. The Protestant Orphan Society may refuse to take the children, fearing the consequences; but the Shewans are the friends of the children, and expect that the grandfather will give them up to be reared respectfully.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

marking their disapproval of the revival of the barbarous principle of English law which has been brought to bear against the offending Tenant of Derryveagh.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS.

Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

What is to be the next move of the Proselytisers? We know it, and have a vigilant watch over their proceedings. The Protestant Orphan Society may refuse to take the children, fearing the consequences; but the Shewans are the friends of the children, and expect that the grandfather will give them up to be reared respectfully.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.

THE PROSELYTISERS—THE SLIGO GUARDIANS. Two poor Catholic children, Catherine and Mary Caulfield, have been given up to the tender care of their paternal grandfather and his Protestant wife, by the decision of the Guardians who refused to allow the uncle to maintain and educate them in his own family.