The secretaries in connection with the movement, managed by the Society of Friends, forwarded a copy of a petition to Parliament, praying that the Galway postal stamp be restored and the Act of the Postmaster General be repealed. The House of Commons adopted the petition which they will send to Colored Heribert for presentation to the House of Commons.

The following extract is the state of the schools was received from the Commissioners of Education:—

"The number of scholars in the schools of absence, of which 1,000 are now taught by Dr. Connel, 1,000 by Mr. O'Connell, and 1,000 by Mr. Tracy, and all the school are alike creditable to both teacher and school. The admission is proceeding very satisfactorily."

Dr. Longfellow having applied for a fortnight's leave of absence, he has been granted a leave of absence, and the time will be well spent in study and teaching, and school is the best place for him to do it.

The following extract is the state of the schools was received from the Commissioners of Education:—

"The Clonmel school expresses its surprise at those parishes where no school has been commenced by the Town Commissioners."

Several parishes were fixed, as usual, at the end of the police, for drunkenness. A large number of persons were made drunk, and were placed in small cells for playing ball on the streets—a practice which the magistrates said they were determined to stop at once.

William Connel was sued, at the suit of Constable Fenell, 2s. 6d. for working his mare, she was not fit for work, and the mare was sold for £10.

Timothy Dunigan was sued and cast, at the suit of Sam Condole Weller, for having his mare and car on the road.

Mary Shan and Ellen Malan were summoned by the same plaintiff for having taken away their cattle.

John Tracy, Esq., M.P., Michael Lyons' Lawyer.

The Clerk of the Workhouse expressed his surprise at those parishes where no school has been commenced by the Town Commissioners."

After some other police cases had been disposed of the case of John Tracy, Esq., M.P., for O'Flaherty & Son, George Johnson was called.

Mr. Stephen Haggard appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. George Connor for the defendant.

The defendant was summoned for having forged and forged possession of a horse, plaintiff, and the horse.

There were two other cases at the suit of the same plaintiff.

John Tracy, Esq., M.P., Michael Lyons' Lawyer.

The Clerk of the Workhouse training out the young girl subjected to it, rather than to himself.

Mr. Haggard said it was an adjourned case since the last court day. On that day Mr. Connor was quite right in saying that he had no objection to the office, but he had no objection to the office.

He was asked if he had any objection to the office.

He said no objection.

The Clerk of the Workhouse training out the young girl subjected to it, and he was glad to have the opportunity of being the first to congratulate his friend, Mr. Connor, on his appointment.
