

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

THE QUEEN'S GARDEN PARTY.

MEMBERS SOLICITED TO ATTEND.
REMOVED THE SPOTLIGHT ON HIMSELF.
AN AUTHOR COMES ON BOARD.
THE WEEDS FIGHT.
MR. FRENCH AIDS THE MAJESTY.
THE SLUMP IN BICYCLE PRICES.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

that in it over and that the pioneers will remain in force, and the approaching visit of the Duke and Duchess of Devon to Ireland affords a further opportunity, which will, it is hoped, be availed of to release the political prisoners.
Mr. James O'Connor will today send the draft of the Bill to the Treasury if it is true that the Treasury received an offer from the English railway company for the purchase of the route, and the English Railway Company, said it was, whether the offer has been accepted.

THE CITY MARSHALSHIP.

AN EXCITING CONTEST.
FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.
LETTERS FROM THE MARSHAL AND THE SUBSHERIFF.
MR. JAMES STEPHENS INTERFERES.

THE REDUCTION OF THE JUDICIARY.

THE POSITION OF THE BAR.
IMPORTANT STATEMENT.
At meeting of the Council of the Bar of Ireland, held on the 29th of June, in the Library, Four Courts, Sir John J. G. C. P. is holding the following statement was adopted:
The Council of the Bar has not any authorized information as to the nature of the change in the judicial establishment proposed to be effected by the Government, but it is not believed that it is intended to reduce the judicial staff in Ireland by the abolition of four Judgeships. As the Council believes such contemplated change is founded on a nice question of the extent of the duties which necessarily devolve on members of the Irish Bench, and of the time occupied by the work assigned to them, their views in regard to their empha- tic protest against what appears to them a heavy one.

SECOND EDITION.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS)
DAILY NATION OFFICE,
54 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
Friday Morning.
THIS MORNING'S LONDON PAPERS.
DELAWARE ENGLAND-OUTWITTED.
The "Daily Mail" Berlin correspondent states that as the result of Dr. Ley's mission in Europe, a German syndicate has virtually secured control of the Delaware region, by virtually buying up, with the support of the Portuguese Company, the Portuguese Company controlling the trust up to the Zambezi.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.
MEMBERS SOLICITED TO ATTEND.
REMOVED THE SPOTLIGHT ON HIMSELF.
AN AUTHOR COMES ON BOARD.
THE WEEDS FIGHT.
MR. FRENCH AIDS THE MAJESTY.
THE SLUMP IN BICYCLE PRICES.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

that in it over and that the pioneers will remain in force, and the approaching visit of the Duke and Duchess of Devon to Ireland affords a further opportunity, which will, it is hoped, be availed of to release the political prisoners.
Mr. James O'Connor will today send the draft of the Bill to the Treasury if it is true that the Treasury received an offer from the English railway company for the purchase of the route, and the English Railway Company, said it was, whether the offer has been accepted.

THE CITY MARSHALSHIP.

AN EXCITING CONTEST.
FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.
LETTERS FROM THE MARSHAL AND THE SUBSHERIFF.
MR. JAMES STEPHENS INTERFERES.

THE REDUCTION OF THE JUDICIARY.

THE POSITION OF THE BAR.
IMPORTANT STATEMENT.
At meeting of the Council of the Bar of Ireland, held on the 29th of June, in the Library, Four Courts, Sir John J. G. C. P. is holding the following statement was adopted:
The Council of the Bar has not any authorized information as to the nature of the change in the judicial establishment proposed to be effected by the Government, but it is not believed that it is intended to reduce the judicial staff in Ireland by the abolition of four Judgeships. As the Council believes such contemplated change is founded on a nice question of the extent of the duties which necessarily devolve on members of the Irish Bench, and of the time occupied by the work assigned to them, their views in regard to their empha- tic protest against what appears to them a heavy one.

SECOND EDITION.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS)
DAILY NATION OFFICE,
54 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
Friday Morning.
THIS MORNING'S LONDON PAPERS.
DELAWARE ENGLAND-OUTWITTED.
The "Daily Mail" Berlin correspondent states that as the result of Dr. Ley's mission in Europe, a German syndicate has virtually secured control of the Delaware region, by virtually buying up, with the support of the Portuguese Company, the Portuguese Company controlling the trust up to the Zambezi.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.
MEMBERS SOLICITED TO ATTEND.
REMOVED THE SPOTLIGHT ON HIMSELF.
AN AUTHOR COMES ON BOARD.
THE WEEDS FIGHT.
MR. FRENCH AIDS THE MAJESTY.
THE SLUMP IN BICYCLE PRICES.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

that in it over and that the pioneers will remain in force, and the approaching visit of the Duke and Duchess of Devon to Ireland affords a further opportunity, which will, it is hoped, be availed of to release the political prisoners.
Mr. James O'Connor will today send the draft of the Bill to the Treasury if it is true that the Treasury received an offer from the English railway company for the purchase of the route, and the English Railway Company, said it was, whether the offer has been accepted.

THE CITY MARSHALSHIP.

AN EXCITING CONTEST.
FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.
LETTERS FROM THE MARSHAL AND THE SUBSHERIFF.
MR. JAMES STEPHENS INTERFERES.

THE REDUCTION OF THE JUDICIARY.

THE POSITION OF THE BAR.
IMPORTANT STATEMENT.
At meeting of the Council of the Bar of Ireland, held on the 29th of June, in the Library, Four Courts, Sir John J. G. C. P. is holding the following statement was adopted:
The Council of the Bar has not any authorized information as to the nature of the change in the judicial establishment proposed to be effected by the Government, but it is not believed that it is intended to reduce the judicial staff in Ireland by the abolition of four Judgeships. As the Council believes such contemplated change is founded on a nice question of the extent of the duties which necessarily devolve on members of the Irish Bench, and of the time occupied by the work assigned to them, their views in regard to their empha- tic protest against what appears to them a heavy one.

SECOND EDITION.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS)
DAILY NATION OFFICE,
54 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
Friday Morning.
THIS MORNING'S LONDON PAPERS.
DELAWARE ENGLAND-OUTWITTED.
The "Daily Mail" Berlin correspondent states that as the result of Dr. Ley's mission in Europe, a German syndicate has virtually secured control of the Delaware region, by virtually buying up, with the support of the Portuguese Company, the Portuguese Company controlling the trust up to the Zambezi.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.
MEMBERS SOLICITED TO ATTEND.
REMOVED THE SPOTLIGHT ON HIMSELF.
AN AUTHOR COMES ON BOARD.
THE WEEDS FIGHT.
MR. FRENCH AIDS THE MAJESTY.
THE SLUMP IN BICYCLE PRICES.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

that in it over and that the pioneers will remain in force, and the approaching visit of the Duke and Duchess of Devon to Ireland affords a further opportunity, which will, it is hoped, be availed of to release the political prisoners.
Mr. James O'Connor will today send the draft of the Bill to the Treasury if it is true that the Treasury received an offer from the English railway company for the purchase of the route, and the English Railway Company, said it was, whether the offer has been accepted.

THE CITY MARSHALSHIP.

AN EXCITING CONTEST.
FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.
LETTERS FROM THE MARSHAL AND THE SUBSHERIFF.
MR. JAMES STEPHENS INTERFERES.

THE REDUCTION OF THE JUDICIARY.

THE POSITION OF THE BAR.
IMPORTANT STATEMENT.
At meeting of the Council of the Bar of Ireland, held on the 29th of June, in the Library, Four Courts, Sir John J. G. C. P. is holding the following statement was adopted:
The Council of the Bar has not any authorized information as to the nature of the change in the judicial establishment proposed to be effected by the Government, but it is not believed that it is intended to reduce the judicial staff in Ireland by the abolition of four Judgeships. As the Council believes such contemplated change is founded on a nice question of the extent of the duties which necessarily devolve on members of the Irish Bench, and of the time occupied by the work assigned to them, their views in regard to their empha- tic protest against what appears to them a heavy one.

SECOND EDITION.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS)
DAILY NATION OFFICE,
54 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
Friday Morning.
THIS MORNING'S LONDON PAPERS.
DELAWARE ENGLAND-OUTWITTED.
The "Daily Mail" Berlin correspondent states that as the result of Dr. Ley's mission in Europe, a German syndicate has virtually secured control of the Delaware region, by virtually buying up, with the support of the Portuguese Company, the Portuguese Company controlling the trust up to the Zambezi.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.
MEMBERS SOLICITED TO ATTEND.
REMOVED THE SPOTLIGHT ON HIMSELF.
AN AUTHOR COMES ON BOARD.
THE WEEDS FIGHT.
MR. FRENCH AIDS THE MAJESTY.
THE SLUMP IN BICYCLE PRICES.

LONDON DAY BY DAY.

that in it over and that the pioneers will remain in force, and the approaching visit of the Duke and Duchess of Devon to Ireland affords a further opportunity, which will, it is hoped, be availed of to release the political prisoners.
Mr. James O'Connor will today send the draft of the Bill to the Treasury if it is true that the Treasury received an offer from the English railway company for the purchase of the route, and the English Railway Company, said it was, whether the offer has been accepted.

THE CITY MARSHALSHIP.

AN EXCITING CONTEST.
FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.
LETTERS FROM THE MARSHAL AND THE SUBSHERIFF.
MR. JAMES STEPHENS INTERFERES.

THE REDUCTION OF THE JUDICIARY.

THE POSITION OF THE BAR.
IMPORTANT STATEMENT.
At meeting of the Council of the Bar of Ireland, held on the 29th of June, in the Library, Four Courts, Sir John J. G. C. P. is holding the following statement was adopted:
The Council of the Bar has not any authorized information as to the nature of the change in the judicial establishment proposed to be effected by the Government, but it is not believed that it is intended to reduce the judicial staff in Ireland by the abolition of four Judgeships. As the Council believes such contemplated change is founded on a nice question of the extent of the duties which necessarily devolve on members of the Irish Bench, and of the time occupied by the work assigned to them, their views in regard to their empha- tic protest against what appears to them a heavy one.

SECOND EDITION.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS)
DAILY NATION OFFICE,
54 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
Friday Morning.
THIS MORNING'S LONDON PAPERS.
DELAWARE ENGLAND-OUTWITTED.
The "Daily Mail" Berlin correspondent states that as the result of Dr. Ley's mission in Europe, a German syndicate has virtually secured control of the Delaware region, by virtually buying up, with the support of the Portuguese Company, the Portuguese Company controlling the trust up to the Zambezi.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.

CONSECRATION OF SLIGO CATHEDRAL.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
POWERFUL SERMON BY HIS LORDSHIP MOST REV. DR. DWYER.
FULL DESCRIPTION.
A MANIFEST EPIC.
THE BANQUET.
Sligo, Thursday.
The imposing Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a noble building which the people of Sligo feel justly proud to possess, was solemnly consecrated to the service of God today.