GLASGOW IRON MARKET—APRIL 4.—No. 1, 47s 3d to 47s 9d; mixed Nos warrants, 47s 3d to 47s 6d; No. 8, 40s 3d to 40s 6d. Market firm.

THIS DAY'S IRISH MARKETS.

CORK CORN MARKET—APRIL 4.—White wheat, 20s 0d; red wheat, 21s to 22s 6d; barley, 17s to 20s 8d; oats, 15s 6d to 16s 6d.

DUBLIN MARKETS.—THURSDAY.

From broken weather and the holidays in the beginning of the week, little business was done.

Tuesday's corn market was light, except for the best oats, which were 6d per barrel dearer; little business was transacted in wheat, barley, or flour; there was no inquiry as to flour, with a change in the run of prices of 1s per cwt. in bakers' qualities, which were quoted 23s 6d to 24s 6d; retail Indian corn stationary; four cargoes of breadstuffs to hand during week.

Average price of bakers' flour, 20s 9d per cwt.

Bread 7½d, 8d to 9d per 4lb loaf; second bread 4d.

Bacon—Only a small attendance of buyers to-day, with prices 2s per cwt. up on hams as well as on bacon; Wicklow hams, 58s to 61s per cwt.; long, from 70s to 74s; thickbeard lard, 70s to 72s; flitch bacon, 60s to 62s; middles, 60s 6d to 63s; American, 53s to 58s; chocks, 51s 6d to 53s per do.

Butter—Fair deliveries, 112s; top prices, 120s per cwt.; per doz., 12s 6d; new, 10½d to 13d; sweet, 14d per lb. A deal of inferior still pressing for sale.

Eggs, 5s 6d; Ducks, 6s 6d, wholesale. The trade has greatly fallen off this week. Live fowl we can quote at 1s to 2½s per dozen.

Hay—The last two market days, but more so on Tuesday, rain interfered greatly with the sale of hay. Prices, 1s 6d to 2s 8d and 3s 10d; straw, 1s 2d to 1s 10d per cwt.

Turnips have got up to 2½s to 2½s; mangel, 2½s to 2½s; carrots, 3s 6d per cwt.; parsnips, 3s 6d per cwt.

Potatoes—No change. Downs, 4s 6d to 5s 6d; kemps, 6s to 6s 6d per cwt. Supplies chiefly at Coastal Harbour or quays.

Fish, except salmon, from 2s to 4s 6d per lb. Other supplies have fallen off.

Salt Fish—Herrings we cannot at present quote. Norway herring fishery a failure; about one-half the usual catch only.

Coals—A large fleet in, but prices like 6d to 10d per ton for home coals; 16s to 17s for furnace per ton; coke, 12s per chaldron.

West ships in England have closed firm. A deal done on French account, which, together with manufacturers' stocks being low, forms a belief that we shall not open firm. But little here at present. Prices have been named to us for wether, 26s; beggets, 27s; skin, 19s per stone offering.

Agricultural seeds in request. Red clover, 34s 6d to 70s, 80s; white, 90s to 100s and 110s per cwt.; Italian rye grass, unasked, 7s to 7s 6d per bushel; Timothy, 12s to 16s per do; Rennet, Dutch, 80s per hhd.; Riga, 54s per brl.

Guano—Peruvian, 13l per ton; phosphate, 10l; bones, 7l per ton, delivered in town.

Cattle Market to-day small, but rather larger of sheep. Middling class meat easier, but prices about the prices of last week. Pigs improved 1s per cwt.

Beef, 5½s to 6½s per cwt. Of a little over. Mutton, 7½d to 8½d, and even 9d per lb, but with difficulty had. Veal, 9d to 9½d per lb. Lambs 26s each. Pigs 5½s to 56s per cwt. off.1121bs on foot.

LAW COURTS—THIS DAY.

COURT OF PROBATE.

Potts v. Bentley.—Judge Keatinge sat in the Nisi Prius Court at half-past ten o'clock, for the purpose of hearing this case, which was fixed for this day for trial before his lordship and a special jury, summoned under the old system. At the hour appointed, however, none of the gentlemen whose names were called answered.

Judge Keatinge said he would wait a short time, and that if the gentlemen summoned did not then attend he would impose a small fine upon each and allow it to remain on.

At a quarter past eleven the Sheriff again called out several names from the jury panel, but received no answer.

Judge Keatinge said—Mr. Brewster and Mr. Whiteside, as the jurors summoned do not appear, do you pray a tales?

Mr. Brewster said that the nature of the case was such that he could not consent.

Mr. Whiteside said that he would desire the case to be tried by a special jury.

His Lordship—Then, gentlemen, we had better adjourn until to-morrow morning. I wish it to be conveyed to the different jurymen that it is my intention to fine every person who does not attend to-morrow morning, and whatever fine I impose I shall certainly leave on.

The court was then adjourned to half-past ten o'clock to-morrow (Friday) morning.

The following are the counsel concerned in the case:—Counsel for the plaintiff—Messrs. Whiteside, Q.C.; John F. Walsh, Q.C.; Andrews, Q.C., and Stanley —Mr. Todd. For the defendant—Messrs. Brewster, Q.C.; T. Ball, Q.C., and Shaw. Attorney—Mr. Fitzgerald.

ROYAL DUBLIN SOCIETY'S SPRING CATTLE SHOW.

The utility of the agricultural shows of the society was made apparent by the large number of persons engaged in the treatment of cattle and general farm operation, who availed themselves of the opportunity of inspecting and examining the various exhibits on the several department of the present show, and the grand array of agricultural implements and machinery stationed in the lawn above, the present event, are schools of practical instructions, as well as great centres, in which is shown the progress agriculture is making year after year. They are more, they are blessings to the country, as the skilful farmer or ingenious mechanic may receive encouragement to go onward on his path of useful labour. Our railways have brought hundreds to the town on the show, and a large number of English victuallers have arrived for the purpose of purchasing fat stock. Large prizes were offered for "Shorthorns" and "Herefords." Two prime fat "Kerrys" exhibited by Mr. Allan Pollok, and two great bullocks exhibited by the Earl of Shannon, have been purchased by Mr. Joseph Purdy, victualler, South Great George's-street. Great quantities of Irish beef and mutton have been exchanged for English money, and we believe that the buyers and the sellers seemed and to all appearance to be pleased with their bargains with one another. The show of agricultural horses will be held between eleven and twelve o'clock to-morrow, and at one o'clock Mr. Gaffney, Sons and Porter, will sell by auction prime lots of breeding and fat stock.
