New York, 24th.—No general forward movement of Bull's money yet to be seen. General Bull's money has been advanced in Kentucky by General Bess.

The Federalists are reported to have obtained a victory in the election of the State of New York. It is reported that a coalition had taken place between the Federalists and the Whigs.

God, and hence the coverage of our poor countrymen, in the midst of the most serious period of the passage. But, we are delaying too long the pleasure which our readers must enjoy in the perusal of the letter of our correspondent.

Dear Sir.—I have read with considerable interest the article on "Emigration to Queensland" which has appeared in the last two numbers of the Champion.

At the present moment, there are some Irishmen within the Emerald Isle which give our island a singular aspect. The crowd is now more compact, the current more rapid, and the tide more numerous.

In the interim, there is one point among those who have been lately emigrating to Queensland, which has not been touched upon by our correspondents.

The writer from New South Wales says— "Having seen the Irish people lately emigrating to Queensland, I cannot for my own sake, permit myself to say anything in disparagement of the enterprise."

It is a well known fact, that the Irish people, who have been lately emigrating to Queensland, are not only a brave and industrious race, but also a very intelligent one.

THE SLIGO GUARDIANS.

WE ARE NOT RIGHT ON SATURDAY last, when noticing the absence of a sufficient number of Guardians to form a Board on the previous Tuesday, in anticipating a strong attendance on Friday.

OUR LIFE-LETTED COMMISSIONERS.

The Life-Letted Town Commissioners of Sligo had a great day Monday last; though the job in hand was of somewhat smaller dimensions than others that have been subjected to a similar trial.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

We beg to remind our Subscribers who are in arrears, that it requires a very long time to catch up with the Champion, and we trust that the intention of the Editor, in publishing the arrears, is as friendly a hint to clear off all arrears.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

AMERICA. We have no exciting news from America this week, the continuing pressure apparently willing to draw Russia out of their recent conflicts. The rumor is again affixed that France and Russia are "thinking of mediation."
